“What We Can Learn From Trees”

Most people would love to embrace a stress-free life. Consider what we can learn from watching trees grow that teach us valuable life lessons.

If a tree is constantly pampered and sheltered from nature’s adversities it will still grow but it will never reach it’s potential because the roots are shallow. The tree that experiences daily challenges constantly searches for nutrients and water. This creates a root system that runs deep and wide. In the midst of the storms, it is well anchored and resilient.

God planted the tree that would one day hold His Son, Jesus between heaven and earth. That tree experienced tremendous adversity to reach a size where it could support the most important person who has ever walked the planet.

We should look for God to grow us during stressful times so that we weather life’s storms.
